Question 1

Q: Is it necessary to deliver all 600 signs by the week of September 3rd? Would it be possible to deliver in two shipments?

A: The South Carolina Education Lottery (SCEL) has determined it would like to receive bids for the cost of producing 300 signs AND for producing 600 signs in order to make a price comparison as to which amount is most beneficial to SCEL. If having additional time to produce 600 signs would result in cost savings, please provide the anticipated delivery days after receipt of order. Please see the last page of this amendment for an updated SPECIFICATIONS AND BIDDING SCHEDULE.

Question 2

Q: The Procurement Webpage states: “Bid with sample must be received by: 7/18/12 at 11 a.m. ET.” The actual solicitation does not mention a sample being submitted with the bid. Does a metal sample need to be included with the bid?

A: No, a metal sample is NOT needed at the time the bid is presented. Once the solicitation is awarded, prior to production, the winning vendor must submit a pre-production proof and have the proof approved. The purpose of the metal pre-production proof is to ensure the accuracy of the artwork and the quality of the aluminum.

At the time the 300 or 600 curbside signs and stands are delivered to the Blythewood warehouse, one (1) final sample should be sent to the Columbia office. As SCEL’s office is about 16 miles from the warehouse, receiving a separate final sample allows staff to approve the final product and expedites paying the invoice.

Question 3

Q: On page 5, the “Specifications and Bidding Schedule” states under “Quantity” that 600 signs and stands are being solicited. Under “Packaging”, “1 per carton with FG hardware” is requested, but under the “Deliver” section at the bottom left side of the page, only 300 boxes are to be shipped. Is the number of boxes to be shipped correct?

A: No. The number of boxes to be shipped is not correct. The correct number of boxes to be sent to the Blythewood address is:

- 1) If 300 signs are awarded, then 300 boxes should be delivered to Blythewood. [(1) one sign and stand with hardware per box)]; or
- 2) If 600 signs are awarded, then 600 boxes should be delivered to Blythewood. [(1) one sign and stand with hardware per box)]; and
- 3) One (1) final sample (sign and stand with hardware) should be sent to the Columbia Office at the same time as the Blythewood delivery is being made.

Additionally, due to a change in personnel at the Blythewood Warehouse, the correct delivery address information from Page 4, Number 2 is:

South Carolina Education Lottery
% Scientific Games International
Attn: Dan Dyar; (803) 237-7946
120 North Point Court
Blythewood, SC 29016

Question 4

Q: The SCBO advertisement gives the solicitation number as “Street Talker.” The solicitation form on the SCEL Procurement webpage states “Street Talker2” is the solicitation number. Which is the correct solicitation number?

A: Due to the inconsistency in naming the solicitation, while “Street Talker2” is preferred, “Street Talker” will be accepted on the outside envelope containing the bid information or on the subject line of an emailed or faxed bid. The bid should include: 1) completed and signed pages 1 through 3 of the solicitation, and 2) either two (2) copies of page 5 of the solicitation (one copy for each amount) or one (1) copy of the final page of Amendment 1 (this document).

Question 5

Q: Is this a simple real estate type sign or is there an example I can look at? What do you mean by “restrictor plate”? Also, what do you mean by “restrictor plate support” and “black trim lock”?

A: Please see the picture (below) of the “Play Here” Curbside Sign and Stand (Street Talker). The picture includes labeling of the “black trim lock” and the “metal restrictor support plate.” The aluminum sign is banded in black trim lock. The sign slides into a restrictor plate that holds the sign upright when attached to the two leg pieces. The two pieces of the stand (the fixed legs) are held together with screws through the first half of the stand, through the restrictor plate with the sign sandwiched in the middle, and finally through the second half of the stand the screws are bolted to hold the stand approximately three to four inches above the ground. The art has been updated since the pictures were taken.

Artwork has changed since picture

Question 6

Q: Do you have any photos or artwork that would give me a better idea of what this sign and stand looks like?

A: Please see the picture (above) of the “Play Here” Curbside Sign and Stand (Street Talker). The artwork (below) has changed since the photographs were taken. In the photographs, the “TM” symbol follows the words “South Carolina Education Lottery.” The symbol has been changed to the registered trademark (®).

Question 7

Q: Could you please provide a drawing of the sign? It would be helpful to know how much copy there is and the colors you want to use.

A: Please see the picture (above) of the artwork for the “Play Here” Curbside Sign and Stand (Street Talker). The artwork has changed since the photographs on page 3 were taken. A registered trademark (®) now follows the word “Lottery.”
